Getting Ready for Fall

If you're like me, these chilly fall nights call for a hearty red wine. But, I'm not quite ready to rule out those whites yet! Nice crisp whites in the warm sun in the afternoon. This month I've selected great wines just with that in mind. A hearty red wine for those chilly nights – but a nice, crisp and dry white for the great fall afternoons. Cheers!

If you ever have a question about the wine club, feel free to call us at 541-549-2675.

2008 Portteus Purple Haze - $10

Columbia Valley, Washington

Tasting Notes: 50% Petite Sirah, 50% Sangiovese – this hearty red wine is great for chilly fall nights. Flavors of plum, raspberry, blackberry, and coffee.

Pair with: Especially good with red meats.

2008 Jean Guillot Sauvignon Blanc - $10

Bordeaux, France

Tasting Notes: Dry and really crisp, this Sauvignon Blanc is elegant and mouth-watering. Crisp apples and slight grassy notes, it truly represents a good value white Bordeaux. Soft, subtle mineral notes are wrapped up in aromatics of melon and citrus. Clean, bright and refreshing - This is a perfect little Sauvignon Blanc to enjoy while having a lite lunch in the afternoon sun or getting your evening kicked off.
