Pertinance Dolcetto D'Alba - ~~$15~~ SPECIAL WINE CLUB PRICE $10

Considerably intense ruby red colouring, with appealing purplish nuances. The bouquet is fragrant and vinous at the same time; very ample and fruity, with a long finish. Dry, round, and nicely bitterish, this is an elegant, well-structured wine with just the right acid balance and softness making it easy to drink.

Serve with: Wines that are bright and have solid, structured acidity are perfect to pair with Thanksgiving dinner.

Milbrandt Riesling - ON SALE $10

From the winery: No variety is more versatile or enjoyable than Riesling. It goes with seafood, chicken, turkey and pork and a wide swath of cuisines from Cajun to Asian and Hispanic to German. It is also unsurpassed as an aperitif.

Our 2007 Traditions Riesling shows why Eastern Washington is becoming a hub for Riesling. It is ripe, fresh and highly aromatic. The nose combines peaches and apricots. The flavors are rich, lush and juicy. The finish is off dry and balanced.

Serve with: Riesling has always been considered one of the classic Thanksgiving dinner wine. It's bright acidity and complexity is going to pair with everything from the turkey to all the side dishes. It's off-dry finish will lend itself well with all the guests as well!

Pairing Wine with Thanksgiving Dinner

This is one of my MOST favorite months to choose your wine club selections, as I try and find fantastic wines that will pair with your traditional Thanksgiving dinner. If you can hold on to these until next week's dinner, you'll find gorgeous selections that will please your guests. As always, enjoy! Emily and Mark Pelletier
