Ahhhhh...Jacuzzi

When I think “jacuzzi”, I think hot swirling water relaxing my muscles...well, you’re not too far off if you think the same thing – but you now can also think “wine”. That’s right – Jacuzzi wine! The Jacuzzi family immigrated to America in 1907, working in Washington and later moving down to Southern California. The Jacuzzi family made their name famous by manufacturing plane propellers. A plane accident put a hinder on these operations, and the Jacuzzi family ceased from manufacturing plane products. In 1936-7, the Jacuzzi family began producing wine, and most likely for a steady income, well, bath and spa pumps that bears their name.

They have come a long way since the 1930’s – producing only 20 cases their first year, they are now known across the country for their Chardonnay, Cabernet, Merlot, and Zinfandel. We are proud to feature these wines at a special price to our wine club members.

As always, enjoy! Cheers, Mark and Emily Pelletier

Decant! A good amount of air really allowed this wine to open up and show it’s full potential!

Special Price!
2006 Jacuzzi Cabernet - $20
Sonoma Valley, California

Tasting Notes: Wonderful bright blackberry and nuances of herb combine with vanilla and caramel from the oak. This is a full-bodied red with ample tannin.

Pairing Suggestion: Pair with a grilled steak or pepper-crusted Salmon.

Special Price!

2006 Jacuzzi Giuseppina - $17 Carneros, California

Tasting Notes: 100% Chardonnay aged 6 months on oak. Rich and fruity with luscious apple and pear flavors and a toasty, vanilla-oak finish.

Serving Suggestions: This wine is an exquisite accompaniment to chicken with a tarragon cream sauce, Dungeness crab, or a nice piece of Gruyère cheese.
