Gilbert Cellars Allobroges (Washington) - $22

From the Winery: In the days of the Roman Empire the Allobroges were Celtic people living in the Rhone Valley of France who received acclaim for their dark, rich red wines made from the Allobrogica vine. Their winemaking tradition has continued in the Rhone Valley for over two millenia and inspires our wine today.

Tasting Notes: This blend from four vineyards in the Columbia Valley creates a wine that embodies the essence of Rhone varieties in Washington. 60% Syrah, 22% Grenache and 18% Mourvedre the Allobroges is an easy drinker, exhibiting opulent black fruit and a smooth, filling mouthfeel. Drink now through 2015. 89 points and "Best Buy" from Wine & Spirits; Gold Medal San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition.

Et Fille Viognier (Oregon) - $24

From the Winery - Tasting Notes: Tropical and dried fruit aromas and flavors, crisp acidity, restrained elegance. This aromatic, dry white wine is all about food pairing. If you do your own cooking for special dinners as I do, you will be pleased with how our Viognier holds up to spice, including Thai, Indian, Mexican, and South American dishes. It is particularly nice with seafood such as crab, scallops, and ceviche. Our Viognier's complex profile lingers on the palate.

First Installment of "Did You Know?"

Welcome to the first "Did You Know" section - something I'd like to share with you about wine, products, sipping, and more. Look for more fun and exciting tid-bits about Cork Cellars and wine.

Wine Tasting is FUN! Spending a couple days in wine country is the best way to learn more about wines - wine country is not far in any direction from Central Oregon - west about 2.5 hours to the Willamette Valley, northeast about 4.5 hours to Walla Walla Valley, or about south 4 hours to the Applegate Valley. Whichever direction you choose, good wine is waiting! For suggestions on places to stay, wineries to visit, and places to eat, don't hesitate to stop in and ask! All of us at Cork Cellars are happy to talk about our favorite places! Can't visit Wine Country?

Cork Cellars always has great wines on the wine list to try - taste 4 wines for just $6! The awesome thing about our tasting is 1. you pick which ever 4 look good to you, 2. our list changes about every week, so there is always a new wine to discover, 3. wine tasting is a great way to evolve your wine knowledge and discover new wines at all different price ranges, and 4. love a wine and then you can get a glass to savor!

Wine tasting can be fun over a weekend trip - or just as fun at Cork Cellars without having to travel! Right here in Sisters, we bring great wines from all over the Northwest to you. In just a short drive, you can be tasting unique brands that we personally have selected for you to enjoy.

We look forward to serving you! As always, enjoy! Emily, Mark, and Nora Pelletier
