2007 Scott Paul Martha Pirrie Pinot Noir – $25 Willamette Valley, Oregon

Tasting Notes: From the Winery: An excellent example of everything we hope for in Cuvée Martha Pirrie – pretty red fruits layered over a lithe and supple frame, nicely balanced acidity, and a silky, yummy finish. Lots of flavor and lots to like. Ready to drink now and over the next 3-5 years. As always, all wild yeasts, no enzymes, no additives. Élevage for 11 months in French oak barriques, 20% new, and bottled at 13.1% alcohol on August 12, 2008.

2006 Forgeron Cellars Chardonnay – $25

Columbia Valley, Washington

Tasting Notes: Assertive aromas of green apple and peach lead to a mouthful of dense and creamy flavors. Layered and full bodied, yet fresh with pear, citrus and mineral notes outlining its fruity character. This wine is very satisfying from start to finish.

Serving Suggestions: Try with coconut prawns, seafood fettucini with halibut, scallops and clams or something as simple as a rich bowl of clam chowder and crusty bread.
