Anthony Dell I Sunset Ridge Pinot Noir - $25

Tasting Notes:

A great summer pinot with rich fruit and smooth notes of vanilla.

From the Winery:

Sunset Ridge Vineyard was planted in 1997 to five clones of Pinot Noir. It is located on a west facing slope of the Eola Hills in the Willamette Valley of Oregon. Producing less than 1,000 cases - a true Mom-and-Pop operation striving to make wines they like to drink....and liking variety, they produce six wines with fruit from both their estate and the Del Rio vineyards.

Ken Wright Cellars Pinot Blanc - $24

From the Winery:

This wine was barrel fermented in french oak from the vosges forest and aged on the original yeast until bottling. 350 cases were produced.
